THE EUROPEAN CONGRESS.

By Cable to the News.

LONDON, June 21.—A Berlin dispatch to the Pall Mall Gazette says: A special messenger has gone to St. Petersburg, it is said, to report to the Czar the progress of negotiations, which are affirmed to be taking a different course from what was expected by Russia, owing mainly to fresh rapprochements between England and Austria, which appears to render further concessions on the part of Russia necessary.

BERLIN, June 21.—In exchange of views now going on between the Plenipotentiaries the Russian representatives are beginning to point out that there is a final limit to the concessions for a State which has made sacrifices and cannot offend the strong national feeling of its people. They are also said to have stated that they could not go beyond the concessions already made.

The Gallows.

By Telegraph to the News.

CINCINNATI, June 21.—Perry Bowster, who murdered an aged toll gatekeeper and his wife, on the Circleville pike near Chillicothe last October, was hung at Chillicothe this morning in the presence of a large crowd. Bowster went quietly to the scaffold. He refused religious ceremonies, and maintained a defiant attitude to the last.

FREDERICK, MD., June 21.—Edward Costly, colored, was hanged here to-day for the murder of his cousin Solomon Costly.

CHICAGO, June 21.—This morning Jeremiah Connolly, aged 19, and George Sherry, 21, were hanged to-day for the murder of Hugh McConville, on the evening of the 19th of January. The young men were on a protracted spree, and started out on the evening of the murder, with the avowed purpose of killing somebody, and before meeting McConville they had assaulted some half dozen persons, one a woman.

Germany and the Socialists.

By Cable to the News.

LONDON June 21.—A despatch from Paris says there still exists much agitation in Germany about the measures the government is alleged to be in favor of for the repression of socialism. The German newspapers, notwithstanding the absorbing questions before the Peace Congress, are continually reporting arrests of Socialists and the interruption of meetings. The Socialist journal, the New Press, asserts that an examining magistrate of one of the Berlin courts said, as far as the investigation has proceeded there is not the least reason to suppose Nobeling was connected with the Social democrats.

Liverpool Cotton Brokers' Circular.

By Cable to the News.

LIVERPOOL, June 21.—This week's circular of the Liverpool Cotton Brokers' Association says the market was firm at the commencement of the week, but has since become quiet and with a moderate business. Prices have slightly declined. In American the demand has been moderate, and quotations are reduced 1-16d. to ⅛d., except for higher grades, which are unchanged. In Sea Island a fair business was done at steady prices. Futures have been dull all the week and prices gradually declined, closing at about 3-32d. below that of last Thursday.

Washington Notes.

By Telegraph to the News.

WASHINGTON, June 21.—The Cabinet to-day discussed the omission in the enrollment of the sundry civil bill of the clause concerning the Hot Springs. The subject was referred to the Attorney General and Secretary of the Interior for the purpose of ascertaining what authority, if any exists, in the bill as at present shaped for carrying out the expressed wish of Congress.

Liverpool Grain Trade.

By Cable to the News.

LIVERPOOL, June 21.—A leading grain circular says the temperature this week has been somewhat higher and the days finer, but it is wet this morning and there is but little appearance of the weather settling. A declining tendency in the wheat trade continues, many of the markets showing a decline of a shilling within a week. During the last few days wheat has been steadier, though home demand is scarcely improved. Cargoes off the coast have steadily disappeared, a good number having been taken for the continent. Maize is without quotable change, but there is more steadiness for that on the spot and a better inquiry for parcels to arrive next month. In this market to-day there was a good miller's demand for wheat, and some parcels were taken to hold over. Extreme prices of Tuesday were realized, and in some cases there was a penny per cental advance. Flour was more steadily held, with an average business. Corn advanced 6d per quarter with moderately free sale.

The Matthews-Anderson Investigation.

By Telegraph to the News.

WASHINGTON, June 21.—The Stanley Matthews Committee met to-day, and was in secret session until 1:30 o'clock, when James E. Anderson was called. He atked to be represented by counsel. The room was cleared to consider the request. The committee decided not to grant it, and Anderson peremptorially refused to testify, when the doors were again closed to consider what to do. When the doors were again opened the chairman informed Anderson that he should answer the questions they might see proper to put. When asked his age and occupation Anderson replied that he had no desire to throw obstacles in the way, but Senator Matthews was a lawyer and was here looking after his interests, and Anderson did not see why he should not have a lawyer to look after his own interests. The chairman again asked his age and occupation. Anderson declined to answer. The chairman then asked whether he had placed any papers in Matthews' possession, and if so, what? Anderson declined to answer. Senator Whyte said: "You mean simply to say that you set at defiance the will of this committee."

Anderson replied: "You put it too strong. I simply wish to say that I decline answering. I have to propose that if Senator Matthews will go before the Potter Committee, I will testify."

The room was cleared for consultation concerning Anderson's refusal to answer. When the door was opened Anderson was informed that the committee had decided that they would require his testimony. It was then asked: "Are you now willing to answer such questions as may be propounded to you?"

Anderson answered: "I am not."

The Chairman: "Then in refusing to answer any question pertaining to matters of investigation, you set this committee at defiance."

Senator Whyte said: "In the absence of the Senate we have no power to punish for contempt, and therefore I move the committee adjourn, subject to the call of the chairman." The motion was agreed to, and the committee adjourned.

The Potter Committee.

By Telegraph to the News.

WASHINGTON, June 21.—The Potter Committee met at 12:15 p. m. Captain Thos. A. Jenks, of New Orleans, was sworn, and examination by Mr. Reed, commenced.

Jenks testified that he had been Deputy U. S. Marshal in the Parish of of East Feliciana, where Anderson was Supervisor of Election, and he stated that the Republicans were so thoroughly intimidated and terrorized at the Presidential election that not one Republican vote was cast in the Parish. Mr. McMahon, of the committee, asked whether this witness was called in the interest of Sherman, and on being answered affirmatively, he objected to that line of testimony on the ground that if Mr. Sherman did not write the letter to Anderson on the condition of the Parish, was a matter which did not concern him. After a discussion, in which McMahon charged his fellow member Reed with making false assertions, and action of majority, and in which Reed "countered" on McMahon. The latter withdrew his objection, and the examination proceeded. It was principally directed to a contradiction of the testimony of Anderson, for as that testimony was connected with this witness. Another point of it was to show that Weber's signature to the Anderson-Weber agreement was not genuine. The witness was familiar with Weber's writing, and he believed that the signature was not his, and cross examination brought out the fact that the witness had him in trouble as tax collector in Louisiana, the defalcation amounting to $15,000, but he asserted that to his deputy and namesake, "another Jenks," was the real culprit. It also brought out the fact that since he had been in the city himself and wife had been in communication with Senator Sherman's counsel. Mrs. Jenks, (who is supposed to have had the original Sherman letter to Anderson), will be examined to-morrow.

The Turko-Russian Situation.

By Cable to the News.

LONDON, June 21.—A private telegram states that a revolution against the Sultan is imminent at Constantinople.

A Vienna despatch says, Skohloff goes to Adrianople to organize a vast camp there. Other accounts show that the Russians are doing all that is possible to strengthen their hold on Bulgaria.

A Therapia despatch says, the Russians are straining their energies on fortifying Rhodesta, evidently contriving every means to gain a firm hold on Bulgaria, and are preparing to hold it, if need be, against all adversaries. The meeting of the Congress seems rather to have increased than abated their activity in that respect.

NEW YORK, June 21.—A Constantinople despatch says, fifteen thousand Russians have arrived at San Stefan from Odessa. The Russians are concentrating at Shumla and Varna. The English government is sending heavy reinforcements to the Cape of Good Hope.

The Indian Outbreak.

By Telegraph to the News.

GALVESTON, June 21.—A San Antonio special, says, a despatch to headquarters from Fort Cancho, says the Indians are raiding near Lipan Springs, and troops are in pursuit. General Ord has gone to Chicago to consult Sheridan in regard to border affairs.

Civil Service Reform.

By Telegraph to the News.

NEW YORK, June 21.—George M. Martin, for several years clerk in the Register Department of the Post Office, was arrested to-day for robbing registered letters. They were all robbed in transit between distant points, as for instance, on their way from San Francisco to Portland, Me.

Marriage in High Life.

By Telegraph to the News.

NEW YORK, June 21.—Ex-Governor Swann, of Maryland, and Mrs. John A. Thomson, widow of United States Senator Thomson, of New Jersey, were married at Princeton, N. J., yesterday. Speaker Randall gave away the bride.

Failures.

By Telegraph to the News.

NEW YORK, June 21.—C. W. F. Dan, manufacturer of children's carriages, has failed. Liabilities, $70,000.

How the Appropriations Will be Expended.

World Washington Special.

There was no regular Cabinet meeting to-day, but the President held an informal conference with his Cabinet officers this morning in relation to the appropriation bills which have been hustled through by Congress at the eleventh hour of the session. It was agreed that all of the appropriation bills should be signed and approved, but that the expenditures made under them should be regulated by the President and heads of departments. If an appropriation is excessive, only so much of it will be expended as is absolutely necessary to perform the work for which the appropriation was made.

THE NORMAL SCHOOL.

Two Hundred and Twenty-Five Normalites Present---First Appearance of Miss E. M. Coe the Celebrated Kindergartenist---Arrival of Prof. S. H. Owens.

Correspondence of the News.

CHAPEL HILL, June 20.

THIRD DAY.

The third day of the Normal School opened with two hundred and twenty-five pupils present. Devotional exercises were had, and the various classes and sections retired to their respective recitation rooms.

Prof. Page is filling Prof. Owen's place. Capt. Jno. E. Dugger conducted classes in Phonetics and Geography. Prof. McIver, classes in the same branches. Profs. Winston and Noble completed the organization of the classes in Latin. Prof. Grandy organized the class in Chemistry, and Prof. Graves a class in Venable's Algebria. The work of the session has been assigned and the students have now begun work in real earnest.

At 12 o'colock the entire school was assembled in the Chapel to hear Prof. Ladd's first lecture. They were disappointed in hearing a lecture, but instead were much pleased to hear the Professor tell why he became a teacher.

His father was a skillful mechanic and seeing that John his oldest child was of a feble constitution, and had no mechanical turn, he secured him a position as master of a district school with a salary of "ten dollars a month and board around." His early education had been received at common schools of an inferior class, and he had acquired some knowledge of the English branches and was a master of the sums in Arithmetic. It was just thirty-six years ago that his father took him in a sleigh to a committeeman's house.

This was the beginning of Professor Ladd's teaching career, and he has arisen from the humblest position as an educator to his present exalted position among the educators of the land.

This but of autobiography was received with applause, and was much appreciated.

The incident which the Professor related of how six boys plotted to turn him out of school was amusing. He broke the plan by his kindness, and those boys afterwards became his best friends. His reference to them was feeling and pathetic. Said he, "in after years I traveled far to drop a tear on the grassy mound which holds three of those noble youths."

In concluding the lecture, Professor Ladd magnified the exalted office of the teacher. He said: Near Boston, under a spreading tree whose branches give an inviting shade, a small tomb is seen. It is rough with the exception of one side, upon which is engraved—

Louis Agassiz,
Teacher.

His tribute to this greatest of naturalists, scientists, and teachers, was eloquent.

President Battle made the following announcements:

There will be a quarter of an hour meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association, every day except Wednesday and Sunday.

The University Normal School Debating Society will meet Saturday morning.

Senator Clingman will visit us next week.

He also read a letter from our beloved Governor, expressing regrets at his inability to attend during the session. The illness of his wife prevents.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Promptly at three o'clock the chapel was crowded. News had got abroad that Miss E. W. Coe would begin her instructions in Kindergarten, and all were eager to learn what the subject is. The "Old North State" was sung. Miss Coe was introduced by Prof. Ladd.

Kinder-garten is two German words—kinder, children, and garten, garden. A garden in which the plants and flowers are little children. In the physical world the horticulturist endeavors to make his plants as thriving and beautiful as possible; so in the training of children. There is too great neglect of children. Take a child at three years old, and by this system teach it till six, and it will know more than one of ten who has been taught the old way.

Children have a mental as well as a physical appetite, and it should be gratified and cultivated. Do not tell children wonderful stories. It will grow on them and they will be extravagant in everything in life—in thought, word and deed. These are the powers to be developed, perceptive, expressive, reflective. In bodily hunger we feed; why not do so in mental hunger?

After some discussion upon the importance of early training for children, that good gospel hymn, "Over there," was sung. The training class of twenty girls and twelve boys was then formed, and by Miss Marshall, of Raleigh, was conducted through various calisthenic exercises, accompanied by music by Prof. Chas. Wilson.

Miss Coe is a woman of great ability. She is cheerful, thoughtful, gay, learned, experienced, and can adapt herself to any emergency. She is a fluent talker and a deep thinker. Her heart is in her work, and children's moral, mental and physical improvement is her chief object of life.

I will devote more time to this department in future letters. Professor Owens came to-day. F. D. W.

WILSON COLLEGIATE SEMINARY.

The Commencement Exercises - Grand Concert--Large Crowd in Attendance.

Specially Reported for the News.

WILSON, June 20.

The grand concert given by the young ladies of Wilson Collegiate Seminary, on Thursday evening, was a brilliant and successful affair. The hall, which was handsomely decorated with evergreens and paintings, was filled to overflowing at an early hour, hundreds being compelled to remain outside. The young ladies of the school were handsomely attired for the occasion, while among the audience we observed many elegant toilettes and lovely faces, presenting a scene almost beyond description. The very best of order prevailed, and at 8 p. m. the exercises began.

THE PROGRAMME.

Good Humor; chorus by the Class.

Overture Zampa; Misses Estelle Davis, J. Edwards, L. Davis and M. King.

Sister tell us where is Eva? Misses N. Moss, C. Rhodes, A. Brewer and E. Taylor.

Smile Waltz; Misses E Privett and L. Parker.

Rondo des jeunes Virtuoses; Misses C. Bass, L. Lyon and B. Wells.

Venzano Valse; (vocal solo) Miss E. Davis.

Rayon du Soleil; (duet) Misses F. Bynum and L. Gay.

Two Forest Nymphs; (vocal duet) Misses L. Davis and M. King.

O, would I were a Bird; (var) Misses A. Warren and F. Edwards.

Country Lassie and her Mother: Misses D. Faucett and E. Cox.

Amusement Tyrolien; Misses A. Moss, M. Branch and M. Williams.

When Life is brightest; by the class.

PART II.

Fruhlings Einzing; Misses E. Cox, P. Blount and K. Edgerton.

Young Man Across the Way; Miss M. Branch.

Lehigh Polka; Misses M. Blount and A. Pope.

Let Music and Song be our Pastime To-night, Vocal Duet; Misses E. Davis and L Gay.

Robert Le Diable; Misses H Barnes, E Branch and L Parker.

Just to please the Boys, Miss P Blount.

Duo for Organ and Piano, "Over the Summer Sea;" Misses L Davis and M King.

La Serenade; Miss E Davis.

Military Galop; Misses D. Faucett and L Gay.

Sextette Overture, D'Oberon; Misses I Davis, J Edwards, M King, H Barnes, E Davis and E Powell.

One Day's March nearer Home; by the Class.

Two Forest Nymphs (vocal duet); by Misses L. Davis and M. King. In this piece the voice of Miss Davis, which is exquisitely fine, evinced the highest culture, and her notes came forth as sweet and fresh as the limpid streams of song from the nightingale's own throat. Miss King sang very sweetly, and richly deserved the many compliments bestowed upon her by the audience.

"Just to please the boys," by Miss Pauline Blount, brought down the house and added a new leaflet to the chaplet so gracefully woven by the petite singer. Her manner was irresistible, her singing most charming, her acting perfect, and if she didn't please young boys and old ones too, we don't know the meaning of the love glances that were given her.

"The young man across the way" (comic), was graphically pointed out and depicted by the fascinating little Mena Branch, who entered into it with the true spirit and understanding, and sang and acted with charming effect. She is a little jewel, and sparkled last night with great lustre.

THE CLOSE.

The entertainment closed with "When Life is Brightest," by the school. This was very sweet, and notwithstanding the lateness of the hour, the immense audience was loth to leave the hall. The music was good, very good, and Miss Chandler and Mrs. J. B. Brewer, principals of the music department, are to be congratulated upon so successful an exhibition.

RECEPTION.

To-night the young ladies of the Seminary will have a reception from 8 to 11 p. m., and to-morrow they will say "good-bye" to their beloved instructors, and many friends in "dear old Wilson," but for a short period, however. On the 9th of September they have got to come back and "go to books" again. "The life of a school girl, oh, it is too hard," at least they think so, but they are the happiest days after all.

THE ANSON INSTITUTE.

Closing Exercises of Alexander's School.

Wadesboro Herald.

We had the pleasure of attending the closing exercises of Rev. S. C. Alexander's school (the Anson Institute) last Friday, the 14th. During the forenoon the examination of the different classes took place, and confirmed our former belief that the people of this section have reason to congratulate themselves because of the educational facilities in their midst; and we would advise them to continue to encourage the school.

After the examination there was a bountiful supply of nourishment for the body spread for the hungry visitors, who did ample justice to the "goodies."

The literary address, delivered in the afternoon by Capt. Waring, of Mecklenburg, was replete with good, sound practical sense, and adapted to the occasion. There was quite a crowd to hear the address, and from the frequent applause, there is no doubt but the people were well pleased; and if they will only follow the advice given, their prosperity will be manifest to all.

The exercises at night consisted of dialogues, speeches, and music by the Rockingham band.

We would be pleased to give the programme in full, but our limited space will not permit. Sufficient for us to say that the exercises were a credit to the teachers and scholars.

Indian War.

New York Herald.

In the opinion of General Crook and other officers high in command, an Indian war upon a very large scale this summer is almost certain. The Bannocks, General Crook says, have been driven to war by the government, and are compelled to fight for their lives. They occupy an exceedingly favorable country for military operations. Supplies are abundant, and the opportunities for ambuscade almost innumerable. He held a council with the Bannocks in April, and found them not half supplied and starving. He telegraphed to the agent for supplies and received an answer, "No appropriation." He found that buffalo and game were gone. The Bannock chiefs said they had been allies of the whites in recent wars against the hostiles; had furnished Gen. Crook with scouts in the campaign against the Piutes and Sioux. In return for these services they begged Gen. Crook to help them, but he found he could do nothing.

Hon. Jesse J. Yeates.

Washington State Press.

We are glad to see that additions are being made to the endorsement of the above named gentleman for his renomination for Congress. We believe in the old adage, that when we have tried, and found safe, it is better to stick than to take a new horse, that certainly should hold good in the election of Congressmen if no other quality.

SALEM FEMALE ACADEMY.

Commencement Exercises--Interesting Programme--Accomplished Professors and Well Trained Pupils--Addresses--A Most Excellent Institution.

Specially Reported for the News:

SALEM, June 20.

Last night, at 8 o'clock, a very large audience assembled in the chapel of the Salem Female Academy to attend

THE MUSICAL ENTERTAINMENT.

A few minutes after 8 o'clock the young ladies of the school filed into the chapel, nearly all of them dressed in pure white, and presenting quite a lovely appearance. Those who were to participate in the entertainment took seats upon the rostrum; the others occupied reserved seats in front. The audience became quiet and the evening's entertainment was rendered according to the following

PROGRAMME—PART I.

23. Recitation—The building of the ship, Longfellow, Miss Dora Jack.

24. Chorus—For His is the sea and He hath fashioned it; His hands formed and prepared the dry land, XCV Psalm, Mendelssohn.

REMARKS.

No. 1 was very good so far as the music was concerned. The words in the singing were not quite distinct enough. Some parts of No. 2 were very lively and pretty—other parts rather dull.

No. 3 was very good indeed. No. 4 was decidedly the best recitation of the evening. It was rendered by a little girl in a clear, distinct and impressive manner. In No. 6 the time and singing were both excellent. No. 9 was received with much favor by the audience. No. 10 was a French Recitation, and was well delivered. No. 13, rendered by special request, was highly gratifying to the audience. In No. 16 the music was excellent, but the utterance given the words was indistinct. No. 19 was charming. In No. 21 Miss B. sang so well that a repetition of her song was loudly called for, and she complied with the request of the audience, and rendered it the second time as well, if not better, than she did the first. In No. 22 there was a fine display of the very finest musical talent. The closing chorus, Mendelssohn's, 95th Psalm, was one of the finest things of the kind to which we ever listened.

TAKEN AS A WHOLE.

The evening's entertainment was quite successful. The entertainment was rather too long, but the exercises, having commenced early, closed about 11 o'clock. Prof. Agthe has impressed upon the mind of the public here that he is preeminently qualified for the position which he occupies. His concerts so far have been highly satisfactory to the public generally.

THE COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES.

At 9 a. m. to-day the audience again assembled in the chapel to attend the commencement exercises in connection with the graduation of six young ladies. The exercises were opened with the singing of one of Mendelssohn's most beautiful choruses, "O Come, let us Worship and Kneel Before the Lord," after which Rev. C. L. Rights read the 104th Psalm, and the audience was led in prayer by Rev. Eugene Greider.

THE SALUTATORY ADDRESS

was read by Miss A. M. McDowell, of Spartanburg, S. C. Not being in a good position we could not hear her very distinctly, but we observed that her manner was dignified and graceful.

After the reading of the Salutatory, Rev. Mr. Zorn, the Principal, addressed the audience and presented each member of the graduating class to the audience, calling each by name, and as each young lady's name was called she would rise and make a graceful bow, after which the exercises were conducted according to the following

PROGRAMME:

Music—Rondo Finale. Trio. Op. 97, Reissiger.

Address—Rev. Edward Rondthaler.

Music—Grand Duo sur l'Opera: Les Huguenots, de Meyerbeer, E. Wolf.

Presentation of Diplomas to Graduating Class, by Rt. Rev. Bishop B. A. DeSchweinitz, President of the Board of Trustees: Misses C. C. Swann, Dandridge, Tenn.; A. M. McDowell, Spartanburg, S. C., L. R. Sims, Bryan, Texas; B. D. Coppedge, Wadesboro, N. C.; E. M. Moore, Welford, S. C.; A. F. Blum, Winston, N. C.

Valedictory Address—Miss C. C. Swann, Dandridge, Tenn.

Chorus—Canon. For the Lord is a mighty God and a mighty Ruler. XCV Psalm, Mendelssohn.

Dozology by the audience, and Benediction by Bishop DeSchweinitz.

The Valedictory was well delivered by a beautiful young lady from Tennessee, the daughter of Judge Swann of that State.

The music to-day was most excellent. Prof. Agthe and Miss A. Van Vleck just charmed the audience with their elegant performances.

The address of Rev. Edward Rondthaler was well received and greatly applauded by the audience.

The closing chorus rang out grandly in its swelling numbers, and delighted the audience with the richness of its music. All the exercises have been highly gratifying to the friends of the institution.

THE ATTENDANCE.

There have not been a great many visitors from abrord in attendance upon the commencement, but the citizens of the community have turned out in full force and large audiences greeted the young ladies both last evening and to-day. At 5 p. m. to-day, in company with a multitude of charming young ladies from the Academy, we took the train to wend our way towards Davidson College, so as to let your readers know something of its commencement exercises, which are to take place next week.

CONCLUSION.

I do not feel like closing this communication without expressing my thanks to Dr. Hay, his esteemed wife and Mr. Sublett, all of the Central Hotel, Winston, N. C., for their kindness to me during my sojourn with them. Whosoever stops at the Central will want to go their again, I am sure. R,

DURHAM LETTER.

Death---Large Orders for Tobacco---Improvements.

Mager Green, Esq., died this morning at the residence of his son, Mr. Caleb B. Green, editor of the Tobacco Plant.

Our manufacturers are now receiving large orders for the world-renowned Durham.

The young gentlemen of our town propose to give another dance on Monday evening next.

Work will be commenced in a few days on residences for Messrs. Jas. R. Day, and Tip Lipscomb. We learn that Mr. Lipscomb's residence will be quite handsome, while that of Mr. Day will be one of the finest in the State.

Maj. A. M. Lewis.

Correspondence of the News.

RALEIGH, June 21.

We see in yesterdays issue the name of Maj. A. M. Lewis recommended for the Senate. Lewis is certainly the right man to bring out. Lewis is the man to knock all the independent candidates into a cocked hat. Nominate him, he will carry the largest vote ever polled in the noble old county of Wake, and be an honor to the State of North Carolina. DEMOCRAT.

Have You Seen?

Correspondent in Wadesboro Herald.

Have you noticed lately the new doctrine advanced by certain papers and their correspondents, in reference to the instruction of delegates to conventions, especially the State Convention? Has it struck you that, in all the primary conventions that have been held in the State where it was proposed to instruct delegates, that it was with great unanimity agreed to, that Governor Vance was the choice for United States Senator? Now put this and that together, and what does it add up—simply that somebody's friends are afraid that the people don't intend to be cheated this time as they were six years ago. What new Democratic doctrine is this that the voice of the people shall be stifled, and that delegates are to be allowed to trample on the wishes of their constituents, and subject themselves to the manipulations of designing politicians, who are ready to barter the principles of their party for their own elevation? It is simply monstrous; we have been sold once—and we propose now to relieve our delegates of all responsibility, by instructing them who to vote for. Away with this autocratic doctrine that the leaders shall rule and the people have no voice. This much for the present on the gag doctrine.

Jackson.

Jackson Courier.

Jackson is a beautiful inland village, being eight miles from the Seaboard & Roanoke Railroad, and five miles from the Roanoke river. It is the county seat of Northampton, situated on the dividing ridge between the Meherrin and Roanoke rivers. This county was originally a part of Bertie, but was divided in 1741, and the county seat was called Northampton Court House until 1828, when a charter was received to incorporate the town and change the name to Jackson in honor of President Jackson. At that time Jackson only had four or five houses, and twenty-five or thirty inhabitants, and now where the large and stately mansion of Mr. J. W. Newsum stands was then a dense forest. Now it numbers four or five hundred in population, and where there was not anything several years ago but trees, is now cleared up, and is the business portion of the town. Northampion before the late war was the wealthiest county in the State, but it has lost the greater part of its wealth.

New Steamer and Rail Route.

North State Press.

We learn that Mr. A. Fisher, the manager of the Jamesville & Washington Railroad, has purchased the large Steamer Oriole, to run in connection with the railroad to Franklin. She is now undergoing some change and will be ready in about three weeks. A daily line will be established permanently; one on which our people can rely, and one that will enable us to leave Washington at 6 o'clock in the morning and be in Norfolk at 5 in the afternoon to connect with the Bay line boats, thus enabling us to leave home one morning and be in New York the next day at 5 o'clock.

DEMOCRATIC STATE TICKET.

A Republican View of Supporting it---Some Reflection on the Colored Solicitor.

Correspondence of the News.

RALEIGH, June 21.

When I wrote the short letter published in the News a week ago, suggesting that the Republican party place no ticket in the field for Supreme Court Judges, I did so in good faith; believing at that time, and having no cause for a change of opinion since, that the views therein expressed would receive the approbation of a large majority of the intelligent Republicans of the State.

PROPRIETY OF THE COURSE.

It is useless to discuss the question of the propriety of such a course. We all agree that the Judges of the Supreme Court should not be elected as partizans, but that they should be good and true men, and above the influence of party tricksters. The gentlemen nominated are unexceptionable in almost every respect. They are able lawyers and gentlemen of irreproachable character. Neither of them have ever been bitter politicians, and now in their mature years it is not probable that they will become so.

WHERE PARTY LINES WILL BE DRAWN.

So far as the Legislature is concerned, the county officers, members of Congress—Senate and House of Representatives—it is expected that party lines will be drawn in their elections, and no objection can be made to it.

PLAINTIVE COMPLAINT.

The Register of this city does not seem to be pleased with my former letter, although it does not state wherein it objects to the position taken; but seems to feel badly over the closing paragraph, wherein it was stated that we (the Republicans) have no organ of our own here at the capital. It is no secret, nor can the facts be denied that, so far as the Register is concerned, it is no exponent of Republican principles. To-day filled with the most fulsome praises of some Democrat—to morrow with a long editorial presenting the claims of some ignorant negro for high position. To-day its editor a candidate for public honors, to-morrow throwing its influence in favor of an incompetent negro for an important office and against gentlemen of well known ability and and character.

THE CONDUCT OF AN ORGAN.

Is such conduct as this, that of the organ of a great party? Does the Register suppose that the 75,000 colored and the 40,000 white Republican voters of North Carolina endorse any such policy? If it does it is most grievously mistaken. The good men of that great but much abused party will never sanction such conduct. When they do, then it will be time to surrender and acknowledge ourselves whipped. For one, this writer does propose to follow the lead of such men as manipulated the late convention at Tarboro, so abominable in its results. If the Register expects to be the organ it must mend its ways, and that soon and effectually. REPUBLICAN.

DURHAM.

Visit of Mr. Cree, of the Y. M. C. A.---An Interesting Meeting.

Correspondence of the News.

DURHAM, June 21.

The meetings conducted by Mr. Cree, of the International Young Men's Christian Association in Durham on Thursday, attracted large audiences. In the evening he gave a bible reading in the Methodist Church; the service was new to most of our people and was much enjoyed. At night a large audience was present at the Baptist Church. Rev. Mr. Durham, the pastor, conducted the opening exercises, after which Mr. Cree made an interesting statement of the object, aims and purposes of the Christian Associaiion. Rev. Mr. Wood, of the Methodist Church, followed in prayer. Mr. Cree then made an earnest gospel talk, to which the large audience paid the closest attention. A deep impression was made on the audience, and at the close a number requested prayer for themselves. The audience was then dismissed. An invitation was given those interested in Christian Association work, to remain; about a hundred and fifty, largely young men, remained. Mr. Cree then gave a brief statement of the Association work in its various phases, and urged an organization in our town. Ministers and others have expressed themselves as in hearty sympathy with an object designed to reach young men, and it is probable at an early day a Young Men's Christian Association will be organized here.

There are now fourteen associations in our State, and a deep interest is felt in this phase of Christian work.

HALIFAX COUNTY.

Death---Crops---State Ticket---Senator Merrimon's Card.

Correspondence of the News.

RINGWOOD, June 20.

Mrs. George B. Curtis, of Enfield, died on Monday last, after a short but severe illness. One day this week Mrs. James Boreman, living near this place, had been to see a sick neighbor, and returning home, she fainted as she was getting out of the buggy and died in ten minutes.

The weather is cool, nearly enough for frost this morning. Cotton looks badly, and a large crop cannot be made.

The convention nominations for the Supreme Court Bench meet with universal approval, and the ticket will hardly have opposition, as I have heard many Republicans favor no ticket of the party.

All consider the card of Judge Merrimon unfortunate, and if I am not mistaken, it will detract much from him and not injure Governor Vance, whom the Senator evidently wished to draw into an acrimonious discussion.

The News' reply is all sufficient, and we are pleased that Governor Vance has not noticed this, we think, uncalled for attack upon him.

Graham Haywood for Coroner.

Correspondence of the News.

While there are so many recommendations for office, we would suggest the name of Mr. Graham Haywood for Coroner of Wake county. This is one of the county offices which we have not heard one spoken of to fill yet, so we most heartily recommend to the citizens of Wake a young man who we know would fill this office with credit to himself and to his county. May the people of Wake county place a man like Graham Haywood, a true Democrat and a hard worker in the cause, upon the Democratic ticket.

GENERAL GRANT is at Amsterdam—who cares a d—n?

SENATOR MERRIMON returned home yesterday, and was last night the recipient of a complimentary serenade. He shows signs of overwork, and was not able to make any extended remarks.

TO-DAY the Democratic County Convention of Wake assembles in this city. It is scarcely necessary to admonish delegates of the vital importance of harmony. Nominate the best and strongest men for the Legislature and county offices, and let the year 1878 chronicle the final redemption of the county from Radical rule.

HON. ALFRED M. SCALES was in the city yesterday, on his return from Washington. He was looking remarkably well, and presented the fine appearance of a full grown, robust Congressman. He is one of the North Carolina delegation, of which the State is justly proud, for they have all given her a high stand in Congress and before the country.

GOVERNOR VANCE yesterday left the city with Mrs. Vance, for their home in Charlotte. The public will be pained to learn that Mrs. Vance is in very precarious health, and that she has sought the quiet and repose of her home. A special car was furnished by the Raleigh and Augusta Air Line Railroad, to take the sick lady through without change. The Governor will return on Tuesday.

The Tobacco Tax.

Hon. A. M. Scales, while regretting the failure of the tobacco tax reduction, is yet well satisfied that the bill will pass next winter to go into effect the first of April.

There was such a conflict between manufacturers and dealers, that the antagonism of those opposed to the reduct on succeeded, and upon the whole it may be well, all things considered, for all the interests now have notice of what will be done, and can regulate their operations accordingly.

It was certainly not the fault of the North Carolina delegation that the reduction failed, for in that as in all things else, our members have done their whole duty, and a grateful people appreciates their efforts.

New Route to Asheville and the West.

The Spartanburg and Asheville Railroad will be completed across the Blue Ridge, to Pace's Station, ten miles from Hendersonville, on Monday. The Charlotte Observer noting the event says:—Passengers to Asheville and the Warm Springs, taking the Air-Line train in Charlotte at 2 o'clock a. m., will get breakfast at Pace's Gap and take dinner at Asheville the same day, passing the entire distance from Spartanburg to Asheville in the day time. This arrangement will put passengers into Asheville seven hours sooner than by the present schedule on the Western North Carolina Railroad. Tickets within the past few days have been placed on sale at all the stations on the North Carolina Railroad at the same rate as via the Western North Carolina Railroad via Henry's, thus giving passengers the choice of either route. This route has an entire new outfit, including first-class cars and engines, with the Westinghouse automatic air-brake, and promises speed, comfort and safety to the traveling public

Vance and Merrimon.

Some of the papers are suggesting and urging the retirement of these two gentlemen from the Senatorial contest, on the ground that their personal rivalry and candidacy is detrimental to the Democratic party, and a menace to its harmony of organization.

This proposition, is, to say the least of it, very undemocratic. So far as remembered, neither one has publicly declared himself a candidate for the position, or resorted to any undue means to have the fact announced, or to promote his election. That they both desire the place is one of the most reasonable and proper things in the world. One at present occupies the seat, the other was once chosen for it by a vote in the open Legislature, and again nominated to it by a caucus of the Democratic party. And withal, to be a Senator in the Congress of the United States is an honor worthy any ambition, and to aspire to it is both proper and laudable in any gentleman possessed of the requisite fitness for the place. That both, Governor Vance and Senator Merrimon, are peculiarly fitted for that high and responsible station no one has yet denied, nor likely to dispute.

The suggestion of their names for the Senatorship comes from their respective friends—the people—and it is not too much to say that their friends constitute a vast majority of the Democrats of North Carolina. Why, in the face of the fact that they are manifestly in the public eye as the two gentlemen of the State between whom the choice is to be made, that if one is not the preference of the people, the other is, it should be proposed by a half dozen papers and a few letter writers to declare them out of the contest, is a proposition which does not furnish a self-sufficient reason for its intrusion. The reason hinted at, rather than given, is that the public mind is in danger of being wearied by the discussion of their respective merits, or claims as some put it—no man has a claim to any office higher than his merit—and that to give the public mind repose, the best method is to place both in retirement.

This is a matter belonging exclusively to the people themselves. If they choose to engage in discussion on any subject, or of the relative merits of any man or number of gentlemen, it is their right, and they may indulge it until they shall see fit to discontinue. The people will be among the first to ascertain when they are tired of a subject, and if solicitous gentlemen are at all apprehensive that the public mind may become wearied over a matter of public concern, their best and most consistent course is to refrain from agitating it themselves. But the people are not tired in this case. They seldom tire of what concerns the public welfare of North Carolina, and the temper of the times is to foster the growth of great men in the State. As the term goes, the News places Governor Vance and Senator Merrimon on the list of the great men of the day. They will either, or both, compare with the cotemporaneous production of any State of this Union, and any proposition which looks to disrating and shelving them meets the prompt and unqualified opposition of this paper.

The News has expressed the very decided preference for Governor Vance in the Senatorial succession, believing that such is the feeling of a large majority of the Democrats of the State, but in so doing it has not one word of depreciation for Senator Merrimon. On the contrary, it believes, and is not afraid to say so, and does not ever mean to hesitate to say what it feels and believes, that if North Carolina were allowed three Senators, Judge Merrimon would be one to be chosen next winter. Not that he is the special favorite or personal preference of this paper, or Governor Vance, as for that matter, over at least a hundred gentlemen of North Carolina, but because it believes that such is the sentiment of the great body of the Democrats of the State. However, as there are allowed but two Senators, and only one to elect next winter, it believes that such choice will fall on Governor Vance, but because of this opinion, the News has no desire, and will not seek to break down Senator Merrimon with the Democracy. There are other places and other elections, and it is poor policy, if not worse principle, to attempt to destroy a man to-day whose services you may want to-morrow.

But, it is said, the State does not belong to Vance and Merrimon; and that there are other men in the State. The News has just adverted to the fact of the existence of some hundred others qualified for Senators, and there is certainly no pretense here, or elsewhere, as far as heard from, that the two distinguished gentlemen constitute the political population of North Carolina. And if either of them, or any friend of theirs has set up their ownership of the State, the claim does not appear registered among the records of public recollection. No such claim has ever been put up by either gentleman, or asserted for them by any of their friends. Such proposition is preposterous to place before an intelligent people; and the people know well enough how to receive and dispose of it.

Yet again, it is said they will destroy the Democratic party. More preposterous still. The people constitute the Democratic party. It is their political property. It cannot be destroyed but through their agency and assent. If either Vance or Merrimon should be found entertaining designs on the Democratic party, threatening its organization, or otherwise, they would deserve the treatment which they would be pretty apt to promptly receive. But is either doing any such thing? Governor Vance has been quietly and industriously attending to his duties in the Executive office, seeking to promote the welfare of the whole people of the State. Senator Merrimon has for three-quarters of a year been assiduously discharging the duties of a Senator in Washington, and so vigilant therein that he has seldom been in the State. He published an unfortunate card on the eve of the State Convention, and at a time when it was feared that such publication might produce temporary discord in the party ranks, and from which it was apprehended that serious damage might ensue to the Democracy of the State in the local campaigns. But his avowed purpose was his own vindication, and though viewed in the light of a menace to Democratic organization in the State, his own avowal in the premises is to be taken and weighed along with the effect produced by the card, before judgment is pronounced upon him that he shall retire from the field.

Altogether it must be conceded that the demand for withdrawal from the contest comes with very poor grace until the people shall have been consulted; and it is, to say the least, absolutely discourteous to both the gentlemen and their friends.

Eating is a Torture,

And sleep often a mere travesty of repose, to the dyspeptic. Appetite is correspondingly impaired by this most prevalent of maladies, and headaches, biliousness constipation, poverty of the blood, loss of flesh and of vitality, and a thousand annoying and indescribable sensations, are its concomitants. It is, more over, the progenitor of numerous and formidable bodily disorders. Obstinate as it is, however, its complete eradication may be effected by the persistent use of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, a medicine which communicates both vigor and regularity to the organs of digestion and secretion, relaxes the bowels gently but thoroughly enriches and purifies the blood, promotes appetite, and gives tranquility to the nervous system. Persons of weakly constitution and feeble physique who use this superb tonic infallibly derive from it the stamina of which they stand so much in need, and it is invariably successful in remedying and preventing malarial diseases. june 18 6t

Denominations.

North Carolina Presbyterian.

Of course, we have no apology to make for denominational strife. This is worthy of all the condemnation that is heaped upon it. This difficulty can be obviated by fraternal cordiality. Let each denomination never fail to recognize the others. Let there always be an interchange of cordial Christian courtesy. Narrow minded exclusiveness is what gives color of excuse to the objections raised against the denominations. When one little corner unchurches every other part of the religious universe, it renders itself ridiculous. Charity alone cures such troubles, and by charity we do not mean the spirit which, from indifference, tolerates any and every thing, but that spirit which, while firm in it's convictions, grants the same privilege to others, and does not rebuke them "because they follow not with us."

Bladen Crops.

Lumberton Times.

We have a stalk of the field pea sent us by Mr. Francis Lennon, of Bladen, that measures 12 inches and has two or more peas on it that is three inches in length. Mr. L. has a large field of them, and also has watermellons as large as a man's head. This is hard to beat.

SPARKLING CATAWBA SPRINGS,

Catawba County, N. C.

THIS desirable watering place will be open for select visitors 20th May, 1878. The Springs are situated near Hickory Station, on the Western North Carolina Railroad.

The bracing mountain atmosphere, with the health restoring properties of their waters, renders these Springs a most desirable resort for invalids and pleasure seekers.

The mineral waters embrace Blue and White Sulphur and Chalybeate. It is the best and most extensively fitted up watering place in the State, and can accommodate three hundred persons.

A good Band of Music will remain at the Springs during the season, and all the facilities afforded for amusements usually found at first-class watering places will be offered to visitors. A good supply of ice constantly on hand.

Conveyances will meet the trains daily at Hickory Station, to convey visitors to the Springs

Board: $35 per month of 28 days; $12 per week; $2 per day. Half price for children and colored servants, and liberal deduction for families.

EDUCATIONAL.

The Bingham School,

Mebaneville, N. C., surpasses all other similar Schools in the South: 1st, in age; 2d, in the character of its buildings; 3d, in numbers; 4th, in area of patronage; 5th, in ability to provide profitable employment for its proficient pupils; and 6th, while other expenses are rather below the average this North Carolina School commands somewhat higher tuition fees than any other institution of learning of any grade, for males, in the Southern States. These facts make other testimonials unnecessary.

Weather Probabilities.

WASHINGTON, June 21.

For the South Atlantic States; southerly winds and falling barometer: cloudy and rainy; shifting to colder, northwest winds with rising barometer and clearing weather with will prevail.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

——Yesterday 21st was the longest day in the year.

——The farms around the city are in a very fine state of cultivation.

——Geo. H. Snow, Esq., is having a handsome residence built on Newberne Avenue.

——Yesterday an unfortunate, drunk and down, was put in the guard house to sober off.

——Several of the roads, within a mile of the city are higher than the dome of the capitol.

——A letter is held for postage, directed to Mrs. V. C. Howell, care of Rev. J. K. Howell, Kittrells, N. C.

——Visitors say that this city as viewed from the several roads leading into it, is one of the prettiest cities in the South.

——She had heard that eating onions would prevent the lips from chapping, But she preferred "chaps"—with a light moustache.

——Mr. W. M. Nelson, formerly of Salisbury, N. C. has purchased Osborn's grain and feed store, and will in future conduct a commission and general ware house business. See advertisement in this morning's issue.

——Messrs. Ellington, Royster & Co., of this city, have commenced the erection of a fine dwelling in Durham for Mr. J. B. Whitaker, Jr. The transaction was brought about by their attractive advertisement in the News.

——Few people are aware of the quantity of snuff sold in Raleigh. One of our enterprising merchants, W. H. Dodd, sells on an average ten barrels of snuff a week. That amount being usually worth one thousand dollars.

Reprieved.

James Laxton, of Catawba county, who was sentenced to be hanged on June 28, for rape, at the spring term of Iredell Superior Court, has been reprieved by the Governor for one month, until the 26th of July.

Commissioners Appointed.

Three Radical Commissioners of Bertie county having resigned, the Governor has appointed the following Democrats: J. W. Ballance, Thomas R. Askew, and Etherton Wilson, to fill the vacancies.

Union Gospel Meetings.

Mr. Cree, of the International Committee New York, will give a Bible Reading this evening at 5 o'clock, and hold a gospel meeting at 8 30 o'clock in the Methodist Church. Everybody is invited.

The Government Building.

The appropriation, by Congress, for the United States court house and post-office, has been increased to $34,000. This amount will be sufficient to complete everything about the building. It is presumed work will again commence on it by the first of July, if not at an earlier day.

Personal.

Professor D. D. McBride and Miss Kate McBride, of Little River Academy; Miss Kate Elliott and Miss McBride, of Cumberland, are at the National.

Rev. J. B. Hartwell, missionary to China, and M. De W. Stevenson, a leading lawyer of New Berne, are registered at the National.

Edward Mahony, Portsmouth; O. M. Royster, Hickory; N. B. Perry, Franklinton; Sol. Williams, Warrenton; L. J. Jones. Cary, and L. E. Cooper, Durham, are at the National.

A Suggestion.

It has been suggested that an effort be made to induce Miss Coe, who is now at Chapel Hill, inaugurating the Kindergarten system of teaching, to visit our city and give an exhibition of the interesting process of imparting instruction which is attracting so much attention throughout the land. The novelty of the exhibition and the information to be derived from it would attract a large audience, and a small admission fee would defray all the expenses of the entertainment. By all means let Miss Coe be invited to visit us.

Supreme Court.

Court met at 9 o'clock on yesterday. All the Justices present.

Appeals from the 7th district were called as follows:

Julian A. Coble et al. vs. David Coble, Administrator, from Guilford; argued for the plaintiff by Thomas Ruffin, and for the defendant by Scott and Caldwell.

Henry Whitehead et al. vs. Elwood Thompson et al., from Chatham; order of continuance entered on yesterday, stricken out and case set for hearing today, Saturday.

Court adjourned until 9 o'clock this morning.

Y. M. C. A.

A meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association was held last night at Good Templars Hall, Mr. D. W. Bain President in the chair. Rev. Mr. Black conducted the opening devotional exercises. Eight new members were received. The following committee was appointed: Devotional meetings; Messrs Young, Armstrong, Waitt and McPheters. On young men. Pullen, Brown, and T. W. Blake. The President made an interesting statement as to the need of personal activity on the part of the members. Mr. Thomas K. Cree, of the International Committee New York, then urged the importance of work for young men, using the secular as well as the religious agencies of the work It was decided to establish a young man's prayer meeting, and soon to inaugurate if practicable a reading room, a course of literary and social entertainments, Union Gospel meetings and other profitable and pleasant phases of work. It was decided to hold a series of meetings Saturday and Sunday conducted by Mr. Cree of which a notice will be found in another column.

N. C. Agricultural Society.

The Executive Committee of the N. C. Agricultural Society held their regular meeting last night at the Yarbrough House, A. Creech, Esq., in the Chair, and Capt. C. B. Denson, Secretary. Much practical matter was discussed and settled, in regard to arrangements for the brilliant fair that is in preparation for October next.

The Secretary, as usual, presented a number of letters making liberal contributions for the premium list. Among the many items this week in the way of fertilizers, agricultural implements, pictures, live stock, pumps, &c., down to crimping irons and sad irons, we notice a fine new Howe sewing machine, from Johnson, Clark & Co., Union Square, New York. Mr. J. L. Stone is the agent in Raleigh. This will be given to the ladies, of course. Fifty dozen Coats' spool cotton, represent Messrs. Bates & Coates, of Philadelphia. The work is going bravely on, and the premium list is in preparation.

A letter having been read from the Hon. Jos. J. Davis, announcing the passage of a bill to supply tents to the State Guard, which will facilitate the arrangements for the great encampment at the Fair, the committee unanimously passed a resolution of thanks to our able Senators and Representatives for their effective exertions.

Applications for space were presented, including one of the largest establishments of machinery, in the country.

The date of the Fair is October 14 to 19th inclusive.

A Serenade to Senator Merrimon.

A serenade was on last night given Senator Merrimon on his return home to attest the appreciation which the people of Raleigh feel for their distinguished citizen and Senator in Congress. The Senator upon being called out said: Friends and fellow citizens, having slept but little for the last week, I am unable to address you as I would like to do, but at the expense of comfort, I have come to meet you. It is sweet to a public servant to enjoy the respect of his fellow citizens; I recognise that fact here. I am deeply sensible of the honor you do me by this manifestation of respect and kindly feeling. I appreciate it most kindly and tender my thanks; I shall always treasure it and I beg to assure you that I reciprocate this manifestation. It affords me much satisfaction after many months of work to return to your midst. I trust to meet you and interchange views on the questions which interest us and the whole country. I trust my services will be of advantage to you and that I shall ever be able to sustain your honor and dignity.

Great credit is due my collegue in the Senate and gentleman in the house; we have all tried to our duty. The Senator was here compelled from exhaustion to cease speaking.

Hon. T. C. Fuller then came forward thanking the assemblage for the compliment to Senator Merrimon and briefly reviewing his distinguished services in the Senate.

Hon. T. L. Clingman, was then called out made some general remarks on the condition of the country and rehearsing the points in his late interview with the "Observer" in regard to pledging candidates.

Col. J. P. H. Russ was then called for and with some humorous remarks he stated that he had an axe to grind which was understood to mean a candidacy for Sheriff.

The assemblage then dispersed.

GREENSBORO FEMALE COLLEGE.

Meeting of Trustees — Terms Reduced, &c., &c.

Correspondence of the News.

GREENSBORO, June 21.

Passing through Greensboro we had the pleasure of spending a night at Greensboro Female College, and enjoyed the hospitality of Dr. T. M. Jones, the President. You had an extended notice of the recent commencement exercises. The Board of Trustees met day before yesterday, and reduced board to $10 per month; Modern and Ancient Languages to $5 per session; and made a reduction for the use of musical instruments. This places the college within reach of all, and is no doubt a wise step on the part of the trustees.

R.

The West.

Washington Post.

A steady stream of subscription to the 4 per cent. loan is flowing in from the Western States. And yet, we are often assured that the people of that section are poor; that they are crushed under a weight of debt, and are in danger of becoming repudiationists. The fact is that, with the exception of a few localities where business has been too highly stimulated, the West is prosperous. It possesses every element of substantial and enduring prosperity, and can scarcely fail to become the wealthiest portion of the continent.

Fair Play.

If a few doses of proprietary medicine fails to cure a malady for which it is advertised, some seek a physician, and contentedly take his routine prescriptions for months, even though they receive no benefit. Is this fair? Suppose the traveller on a strange and dangerous road inquires the route to a town some twenty miles distant, and, after going one or two miles, concludes to abandon the road, because he cannot see the town. If lost, could anyone be blamed but himself? The family medicines manufactured by R. V. Pierce, M. D. of Buffalo, N. Y., are a safe and certain cure for the various diseases for which they are recommended. His Golden Medical Discovery has long been the standard remedy for the cure of scrofula, bronchitis, consumption, dyspepsia, liver complaint, skin diseases, and all impurites of the blood. While Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, if used in connection with the Discovery, effects a speedy and perfect cure of the of the most aggravated catarrhal affection. For many years the diseases and weaknesses peculiar to women were regarded as incurable. The knife and caustic were freely used with bnt exceptional benefit. The success attending the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription induced the doctor to sell it under a positive guarantee to cure this class of diseases. If afflicted do not delay or hesitate to try it. See Pierce's Memorandum Books, given away by all druggists. *

(The world's great safety valve) again threatens an eruption—always uncontrollable by human effort. Eruptions of the physical system, as Boils, Pimples, etc are nature's safety means to warn the sufferer that his blood needs entire purification—most quickly and effectfully accomplished by using Dr. Bull's Blood Mixture.

BENEFITS OF LIFE INSURANCE.

Illustrated by the Aetna Life Co.

On the 2nd of April 1878, Mr. J C Ramsay, of Statesville, made application for $2,000 on his life for the benefit of his wife. The policy was obtained by W. H. Crow, Manager for N. C. and by him sent to his local agent at Statesville. Mr. Ramsay paid the premium of April 20th. On the 1st of May he died from the effect of imprudence in eating. Proof papers of his death were made out and received in the office in Raleigh June 1st. On the 18th of the same month the Company remitted the payment to the General Agent at Raleigh, which was received on the 20th, June, and the beneficiary notfied that the money was ready to deliver. Now here we have a lesson which every man should profit by. The uncertainty of human life, and the certainty of leaving provision for our families by holding a policy in the Ætna Co. Diffusive and impartial in its benefits, economical in management and faithful in all its obligations. Knowing no North, no South, no East no West; but only man and his wants.

The condition of the Company is healthful, and entirely responsible for every obligation. Gross assets being over $24,141,175,70. Surplus over all liabilities 4,179,030,85. New policies issued in 1877 notwithstanding the times was 5,514.
